

The recent bitterly partisan actions, either planned and or acted upon by CBS News in an attempt to influence our Presidential election, are contrary to the public trust. Their license to use the public broadcast spectrum should be revoked and the corporation should be heavily fined.